Dr Michael Livingston

Dr Michael Livingston is a post-doctoral research fellow at the National Drug and Alcohol Research Centre and Turning Point. His research interests include the impact of alcohol policy changes and trends in alcohol consumption and related harms.

This presentation will summarise recent trends in alcohol consumption and related harms in Victoria and Australia, focusing particularly on surprising changes among adolescents and young adults.

When
Thursday 14th May 2015, 12pm for a 12:30pm start

Venue
Australian Catholic University
Mary MacKillop Institute for Health Research
Level 5, Meeting Room 1
215 Spring Street, Melbourne
Click Here for a Map

RSVP
Friday, 8th May 2015
Research.CHaSR@acu.edu.au

Lunch will be provided - please advise of any special dietary requirements when you RSVP.